Day 4

Glasgow - Vehicle - Windermere - Vehicle - Manchester

All day

After breakfast, we will first drive to Windermere to enjoy beautiful lake views. After the trip, we will make our way to Manchester. Upon arrival, we will visit the Old Trafford, which is the home of the English football club Manchester United. Football is an important part of Manchester culture in the popular sports projects in Manchester, so the Old Trafford is a football holy land that cannot be missed by the majority of fans. Following, we will go to Albert Square, which was built before the 20th Century, and consisted of forty-six victorian terraced houses, a public house, gardens and a market sloping down the south side of the Square leading on to Bridge Street and Turpin Road.

Itinerary:

Glasgow → Windermere (120 mins, you can participate in the Windermere Lake Cruise + Steam Train at your own expense) → Manchester → Old Trafford (Optional, 30 mins) → Albert Square (30 mins)

All day

Windermere

Windermere, known as "the most beautiful natural scenery in England" is a famous tourist center. The Windermere lake was formed at the end of the last glacial period in a glacial valley running north-south through the Khumbulian Mountains. It is part of the Lake District National Park and has yacht entertainment in summer. Here, you can stroll through the lake district, which the British call "the back garden" to enjoy the beautiful scenery along the way.

Windermere Lake Cruise + Steam Train

Take a boat tour of the lake area of Windermere to admire the lakes and mountains that overlook the villas in the valley like a fairy tale world. The steam train, left in the last industrial period in Britain, still maintain its former appearance. When the train leaves the station, it emits a huge steam mist that spreads throughout the station and disappears into the mountains through the old trestle bridge.

Old Trafford

Old Trafford Stadium is the world-famous home of Manchester United. Unusual aspects of the ground include the raised pitch, and that the teams enter the field from the corner of the Sir Bobby Charlton Stand. Outside the ground is the Sir Matt Busby Statue fronting the impressive green glassed East Stand facade, whilst above the entrance to the Club Museum outside the North Stand is a statue of Sir Alex Ferguson. There is also a clock and plaque in remembrance of the Munich disaster. Across Sir Matt Busby Way is the United Trinity Statue of three of the 1968 European Cup winning team; George Best, Denis Law and Bobby Charlton (now Sir).

Albert Square

Albert Square is the city's civic heart. This is the Heart of Manchester in all its Gothic style. The town hall towers over the square in its architecture splendour and square normally provides a huge space for many a seasonal events, including the famous Manchester Christmas Markets. This public square, dominated by Manchester town hall, has also become a focal point for major public events as well as political demonstrations. It features a number of monuments, most famously the Albert Memorial of Prince Albert, consort to Queen Victoria.

Day 5

Manchester - Vehicle - Oxford - Vehicle - London

All day

Today we will leave Manchester for Oxford. Oxford is the oldest academic city in the UK, with no walls or gates for universities. The most famous college is the University of Oxford. We will enter into this world's top university for a visit, and you will be able to see the shooting place of the Harry Potter films - Christ Church Cathedral School. In the afternoon, follow us to head to London and enjoy a distant view of the famous Tower Bridge, Tower of London, and the famous London Eye.

Itinerary:

Manchester → Oxford → Oxford University (60 mins) → Christ Church Cathedral School (Outside visit, 15 mins) → London → Tower Bridge of London (Far-view, 15 mins) → Tower of London (Far-view, 15 mins) → London Eye (Far-view, 15 mins) → Windsor Castle (Optional, 60 mins)

All day

University of Oxford

The University of Oxford is a collegiate research-based university in Oxford, England. There is evidence of teaching as early as 1096! This easily makes it the oldest university in the English-speaking world. Oxford has educated a wide range of notable alumni, including 28 prime ministers of the United Kingdom and many heads of state and government from all around the world.

Christ Church Cathedral School

Tower Bridge

Tower Bridge is easily one of the most recognizable in the capital, an iconic London landmark and one of Britain's best loved historic sites. This bridge is a must-see attraction for tourists, especially first timers.

Tower of London

London Eye

Windsor Castle

Windsor Castle is the oldest and largest occupied castle in the world! Since the era of Henry I, it has been used by the reigning monarch and is the longest-occupied palace in Europe. Many may disagree, but the castle's architecture and history is said to be a "place amongst the greatest European palaces."

Night

Hotel: Ibis Styles London Heathrow Airport; similar

Day 6

London

All day

Today we will visit London, the world financial center! Together with New York and Hong Kong it is called "Port of Nuremberg." We will visit Big Ben, one of London's iconic landmarks, Westminster Abbey, the Prime Minister's official residence at 10 Downing Street, Buckingham Palace and the British Museum.

Itinerary:

Big Ben (Outside visit, 15 mins) → Westminster Abbey (Outside visit, 15 mins) → Parliament Square (Outside visit, 15 mins) → 10 Downing Street (Outside visit, 15 mins) → Horse Guards Parade (Far-view, 5 mins) → Oxford Street (60 mins) → King's Cross Railway Station (15 mins) → Buckingham Palace (Outside visit, 15 mins) → British Museum (120 mins, ticket included but guide excluded) → Thames River Cruise (Optional, 30 mins) → Royal Observatory Greenwich (Optional, 30 mins)

Big Ben

Big Ben is the nickname for the Great Bell of the striking clock at the north end of the Palace of Westminster. The official name of the tower in which Big Ben is located was originally the Clock Tower. It was renamed the Elizabeth Tower in 2012 to mark the Diamond Jubilee of Elizabeth II. When completed in 1859, it was the largest and most accurate clock in the world.

Westminster Abbey

Westminster Abbey is a large, mainly Gothic abbey church in the City of Westminster. It is one of the United Kingdom's most notable religious buildings and the traditional place of coronation and a burial site for English and later British monarchs. Sixteen royal weddings have occurred at the Abbey since 1100.

Parliament Square

Parliament Square in Westminster is located right next to Westminster Abbey and the Houses of Parliament. The square was created in the 1860s and contains statues of well-known statesmen including Winston Churchill, Abraham Lincoln, and Nelson Mandela.

10 Downing Street

10 Downing Street in London is the official residence and office of the prime minister of the United Kingdom. Colloquially known as Number 10, the building is in Downing Street in the City of Westminster, London. It is over 300 years old and contains approximately 100 rooms. A private residence for the prime minister occupies the third floor and there is a kitchen in the basement. The other floors contain offices and conference, reception, sitting and dining rooms where the prime minister works, and where government ministers, national leaders and foreign dignitaries are met and hosted.

Horse Guards Parade

Horse Guards Parade is the ceremonial parade ground in St James's Park and is the scene of Trooping the Colour on the King's official birthday in June. Horse Guards is the building with a clock tower over an archway, and remains the official entrance to St James's and Buckingham Palace. The building is guarded by two mounted cavalry troopers of The King's Life Guard. The Life Guard change takes place here at 11:00am daily and 10:00am on Sundays. During the Trooping the Colour, the central windows are opened so members of the Royal Family can watch the King reviewing his troops below.

Oxford Street

First for fashion, entertainment, technology and innovation, Oxford Street is the world's biggest high street. It offers 1.5 miles of unrivalled shopping, with more than 90 flagship stores, from fashion and beauty, to tech and homeware. Oxford Street is the ultimate shopping paradise. Shop the very best high-street brands such as Gap, River Island, Primark, X and the UK's iconic department stores, including Selfridges, John Lewis & Partners, House of Fraser and Marks & Spencer.

King's Cross Railway Station

King's Cross railway station, also known as London King's Cross, is a passenger railway terminus in the London Borough of Camden, on the edge of Central London. It is in the London station group, one of the busiest stations in the United Kingdom and the southern terminus of the East Coast Main Line to North East England and Scotland. Adjacent to King's Cross station is St Pancras International, the London terminus for Eurostar services to continental Europe.

Buckingham Palace

Buckingham Palace is the London residence and administrative headquarters of the monarch of the United Kingdom. It is located in the City of Westminster! The palace is often at the center of state occasions and royal hospitality.

The British Museum

The British Museum is a public institution dedicated to human history, art and culture located in the Bloomsbury area of London, England. It has over eight million works of the largest collections during the era of the British Empire. It documents the story of human culture from its beginnings to the present day.

River Thames Cruise

The Thames is the longest river in the UK and runs through the center of London. Take a leisurely sightseeing tour on the Thames River Cruise and enjoy the classic buildings on both sides of the strait.

Royal Observatory Greenwich

The Royal Observatory Greenwich is the historic home of British astronomy, Greenwich Mean Time, and the world-famous Meridian Line. It was established in the 17th century by King Charles II and designed by Sir Christopher Wren. The UK's largest historic telescope gave astronomers new views of the universe more than 100 years ago.

2. Please be sure to provide accurate and complete information upon booking. This includes name, gender, valid documents (passport, visa etc.), valid contact information (preferably a mobile phone), accurate flight information, tour location, etc., This helps to avoid any errors upon the reservation because errors affect travel. Any losses due to inaccurate or invalid information will be at your own cost and the company will not be held responsible.
3. Most European hotels offer rooms with two single beds, and each room can legally accommodate two guests, including adults and children. Some hotels can accommodate three people in one room. The room type is: three single beds, two single beds or one double bed + a folding bed (the specific room type is different based on the hotel). If the actual booked hotel does not have the above room types, then you may arrange one of the guests to share a room with a same gender guest in the group. If there is no same gender guest in the group, a single room will be arranged. In addition, each hotel has a different method of collecting deposits, and guests participating in the group need to cooperate according to different regulations. Please be noticed that most of the deposit collection and refund is handled by credit card. JUPITER LEGEND Corporation and Ctour Holiday guarantee the number of rooms for guests but it does not guarantee the specific room type and location. Hotel check-in time is usually after 15:00.
4. This tour does not accept any City Pass or your own tickets for any of the attractions. Tour attraction admission charges and meal expenses are subject to change at any time without notification. Any purchased ticket cannot be refunded for lower prices.
5. JUPITER LEGEND Corporation and Ctour Holiday have the right to make appropriate adjustments to the itinerary under the conditions of facilitating the operation for the tour group. This, however, will not reduce the items that should be included in the itinerary.
6. During the actual trip, the tour guide or driver has the right to appropriately adjust the tour sequence, stay time or assembly time of scenic spots according to the weather, traffic, and other conditions to ensure the smooth progress of the trip.
7. If the scenic spots are temporarily closed or closed on a particular holiday, etc., the tour guide will adjust the appearance according to the actual situation or replace the location with another scenic spot to ensure the richness of the itinerary.
8. Children under the age of 8 require a booster seat in order to participate in the tour group. JUPITER LEGEND Corporation and Ctour Holiday provide the rental service for $10.00/person/day. Please make a request when booking the itinerary so that we may have the booster seat ready in advance. Please understand that the violations and fines are borne by the guests themselves. There is no need for a booster seat for bus travel on the day of travel, and the fee can be refunded to the guest.
9. Normal health conditions are required to participate and enjoy our full itineraries. Contact us for specific policies or information regarding passengers with disabilities who do need to provide advance notification to make a reservation.

JUPITER LEGEND Corporation and Ctour Holiday do not guarantee a wheelchair lift-equipped bus and/or seating availability to disabled passengers without prior notification and approval.

10. Guests are required to bring their own relevant documents and materials required for entry or cross-border travel. Whether they can enter or leave the country is subject to the decision of the customs of each country. The inability to enter the country is a force majeure factor, and the paid tour fee will not be refunded.

11. We may alter these terms and conditions from time to time and post the new version on our agents' website. It is your responsibility to check the [\[Terms & Conditions\]](#) on their website regularly and prior to making a reservation. Unless specifically stated otherwise herein or required by law, JUPITER LEGEND Corporation shall not be liable for any consequential, compensatory, indirect, incidental or punitive damages arising out of or in connection with the performance of its obligations under these terms and conditions.

12. Due to the oil price soar and the cost of vehicle greatly increased, starting April 1, 2022, please be advised that all bus tours will be subject to an additional transportation surcharge of $5 per person per day, which will be paid together with the tour fees when you place the order.

Know Before You Go

1. The maximal waiting time for any late passengers is 10 minutes beyond the meeting time announced by the Tour Guide. While JUPITER LEGEND Corporation makes every effort to provide on-time service, it does not guarantee to arrive at or depart from any point as a specific time, which may be affected by any number of factors including weather, traffic, strikes, government shutdowns, war or terrorist attacks, or mechanical problems. JUPITER LEGEND Corporation is not liable for any inconvenience or expense caused as a result of such a delay, not liable for the expense of connecting air or train or bus service missed as a result of a delay and not liable for any other travel expense caused as a result of a delay.

2. JUPITER LEGEND Corporation and Ctour Holiday reserve the right, when operating conditions require, transferring passengers from one vehicle to another en route.

3. The following documents are recommended to make your check-in process smooth: A valid photo ID is required to board the bus; We recommend you bring a copy of the email confirmation to board the bus.

4. This product is a group activity. If you choose to leave the group, please inform in advance, and obtain the consent of the tour guide. You need to sign the departure agreement form and the unfinished part will be regarded as your own abandonment. The group fee will not be refunded.

5. Gift items in the itinerary that cannot be given away due to force majeure factors such as traffic and weather conditions or personal reasons may be subject to change. Please understand that the fees will not be refunded.

6. Smoking is prohibited aboard the bus in accordance with law and prohibited in most hotel rooms. Customers are responsible for any penalty charged by the hotel in a non-smoking room €100-€500 per night.

7. Pets and animals are not allowed on the vehicle.

8. Luggage is subject to inspection when crossing international borders. You will be asked to declare any items subject to duty upon crossing the border. JUPITER LEGEND Corporation and Ctour Holiday are not responsible for any luggage crossing international borders. Passengers must claim all luggage at the border crossing point before proceeding. No luggage is allowed across the border unless claimed by a passenger. JUPITER LEGEND Corporation and Ctour Holiday will not provide free transportation to a passenger denied entry across an international border.

9. European hotels emphasize the historical value of the building itself, so some hotels cannot be remodeled due to the architectural theme structure, resulting in different sizes of hotel rooms. If the hotel upgrades individual rooms due to insufficient standard rooms in the hotel, this situation is beyond our control and is not a differential treatment.

10. For all guests participating in the European tour, our company will assist in filling in the declaration card of the country of entry and assist in the virus test required for returning to the United States (the test fee is at your own expense).

11. Only for products with airport pick-up service: only one pick-up service within the free pick-up time range is provided for each order. If it is impossible to arrange due to weather and flight delay, etc., please pay for your own transportation costs.
